RECORD OF THE MYERS FAMILY

PREPARED FOR THE FAMILY REUNION

1937

For thousands of years after the beginning of recorded history first or given names were the only designations people bore. With the increasing complexity of civilized society a need arose for more specific designations, and family names arose. The hereditary surname as we know it today dates scarcely earlier than nine hundred years ago, or from about the year 1000 A.D.

Most surnames originated in one of four ways: (1) those formed from the given name of the sire; (2) those arising from bodily or personal characteristics; (3) those derived from locality or place of residence; and (4) those derived from occupation.

The family name of Meyer, Meyers, Myer, or Myers was derived in the fourth way. It is said to have been of ancient German origin and derived from meier, meaning "a steward, bailiff, a tenant of a farm, or farmer." It was a tremendously popular name in Germany and later went into Holland and Switzerland. Emigrants from all these countries brought it to America.

Families of this name were to be found at early dates in many parts of Europe, especially Musse, Bavaria, Holland, Prussia, Nuremberg, Flanders, Switzerland, France, England, and Wales. It is found on the ancient European and early American records in the various forms of Meiers, Mehier, Meiyer, Moyer, Maier, and Mayer, as well as the four forms mentioned above.

In 1320, the same year that the Pilgrims came to Massachusetts after their thirteen-years' sojourn in Holland, the Palatinate on the Rhine underwent a political revolution, and many Germans from those states sought refuge from political and religious persecution in Switzerland and Holland. They soon followed the Pilgrims to America, many of the family name among them. We are not sure of the given name of our pioneer ancestor. He may have been that Christian Meyer who came from Amsterdam about 1700. His grandson, Christian, had a wife named Barbara. In his will probated June 6, 1751, in which his name is written Moyer, and his oldest son, Christian, and his son-in-law, Henry Funk, are named as sole executors, his children are given as Christian, Jacob, Samuel, Elizabeth, Anna, Barbara.

Or he may have come in that major migration from the Palatinate about 1750-1760 and have settled near Philadelphia with the Tinsmans, Overholts, Stauffers, Funks, Lonkes, Bakers, Ruths, and others who intermarried and moved westward in a huge caravan to Westmoreland County in 1794 or 1795.

Here Henry Moyer (Myers) was born June 25, 1802, near Mt. Pleasant. On January 3, 1828, he married Annie Tinsman, born May 31, 1811, and they lived on Jacob's Creek near Mt. Pleasant till they moved to Adams County, Illinois, in 1851. Twelve children came with them on their journey down the Ohio River and up the Mississippi to Quincy, Illinois, and two more were born after they settled on the farm north of Fowler, Illinois, where he died July 20, 1869, and she lived till April 12, 1899.

Annie Tinsman was the daughter of Jacob Tinsman whose father, probably Jacob also, had come from the Palatinate and settled in Bucks County near Philadelphia. There Jacob was born January 3, 1773, his mother being the daughter of Henry Overholt, another Palatinate German. On December 11, 1798, Jacob married Nancy Anna Fox, born August 8, 1779 in Chester County near Philadelphia. Her name is given as Nancy in such legal papers as her father's will and deeds made after her marriage, but she is called Anna in all the family histories. There is no doubt about both names belonging to the same person.

She was one of ten children of Henry and Mary Ruth Fox. Henry was born March 31, 1745, in New Bavaria, Germany. He is said to have been of Swiss descent with the family name of Fuchs which became corrupted by pronunciation into Fox; but Fox was a common family name in Germany with coats of arms in both Hesse and Bavaria. He was apprenticed to a weaver, and at the age of 18 came with his mentor to Philadelphia where he engaged in his occupation for awhile. He first married Anna Sanders (Sanderin) May, 1770. She was born March 3, 1735, and died January 27, 1774, without issue. He then married Mary Ruth (Maria Ruthin) on November 24, 1774. She was born December 19, 1753, and died August 30, 1834, in Westmoreland County. Henry had preceded her in death almost ten years, or on July 25, 1824.

He rendered military service during the American Revolution, which makes any lineal female descendant who can furnish proof of her descent eligible to membership in the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution. His services were: "Henry Fox was a private in the Chester County militia Eastown Township under Captain John Jenkins, 1782. He served with the company of associators and militia of Eastown Chester County, Pennsylvania, commanded by Captain Moore, 1781."

This military record appears in the 5th Series Pennsylvania Archives, Vol. V, p. 873 and p. 641. His national number on the records of the D.A.R. headquarters in Washington, D.C., is 248466.

Henry Overholt was born in Bedminister Township, Bucks Co., Pennsylvania, February 5, 1739. He married Anna Biedler (born, March 24, 1745). His place of residence during the Revolutionary War was Bucks Co., Pa. He died in Westmoreland Co., Pa., March 5, 1813. His daughter, Marie, was born December 22, 1766. She married John Moyer (Myers) who was born about 1777. They were married about March, 1798. She died between 1813 and 1820, and he died in 1829 in Westmoreland Co. Their son, Henry, born June 25, 1802, married Annie Tinsman.

Henry Overholt's national number on the D.A.R. records is 279541. His military record reads: "Henry Overholt is the ancestor who assisted in establishing American Independence while acting in the capacity of a private. Services: Return of company of Associators and others in their classes in Bedminister Township, Bucks Co., Pennsylvania, 1780. Return of all classes belonging to Capt. William McHenry in Bedminister Township, Bucks Co., Pennsylvania, June 12, 1781. 8th class private." References: Vol. 5, 5th Series, Page 374 and 379, Pennsylvania Archives.

Jacob Moyer Sr. was born in Berks Co., Pa., about 1740. He married Elizabeth (born about 1741) about 1763. His place of residence during the Revolutionary War was Berks Co., Pa. He died in Westmoreland Co., Pa., in 1804. His wife was still living in 1830.

Jacob Moyer Sr. was the ancestor who assisted in establishing American Independence while acting in the capacity of private. Service: Private in the Pennsylvania Volunteers of Berks Co., Pa., from June, 1781 to July 15, 1782. Military Record, Vol. 5, p. 244, 5th Series, Pennsylvania Archives.
